

Quail

Who am I?
In the desert I am found
And my color is usually brown;
I am very, very small
And in the shape of a ball;
I have feathers
That help me in stormy weather;
I have a diet of bugs and worms
And sometimes little ferns;
I have a feather on top of my head
And a nest is my bed.
Who am I?